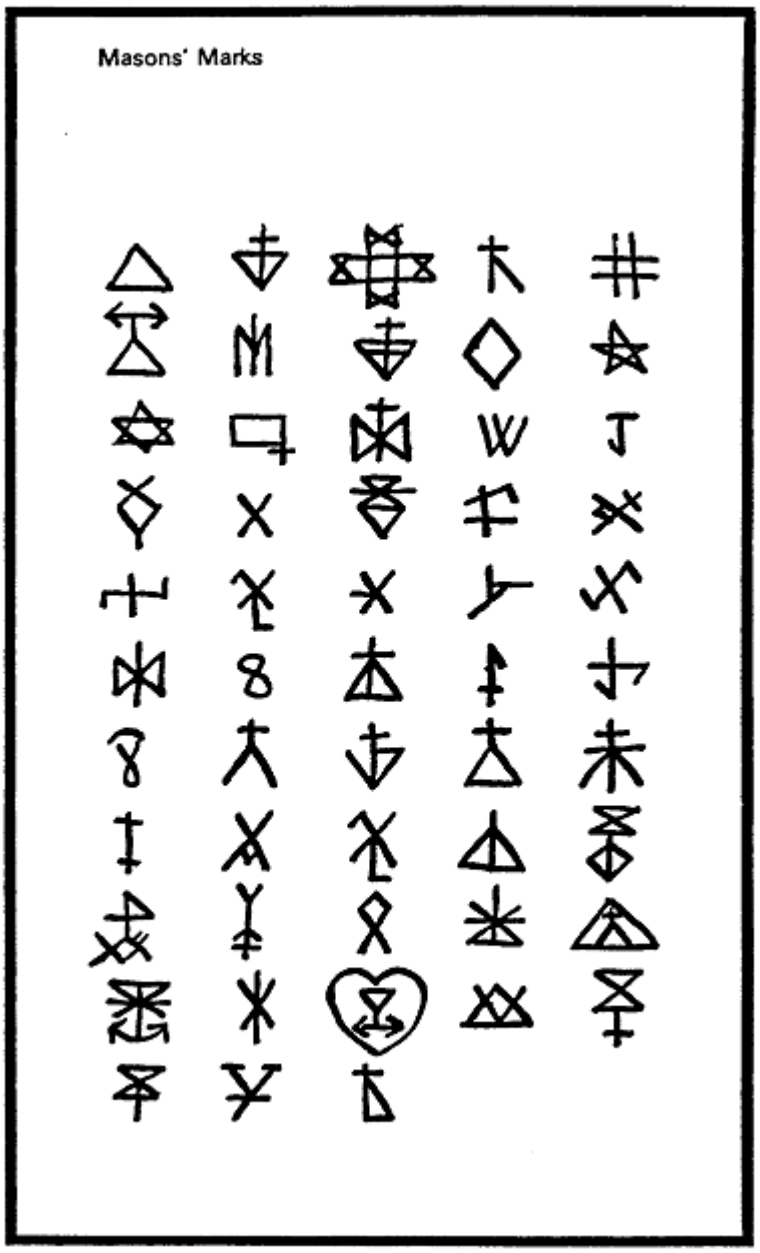
MASON'S MARKS


These are some of the Masons marks used during the construction of Rosalyn Chapel which is located seven miles from Princes Street in Edinburgh, Scotland. This edifice has been described as an architectural wonder. There are at least thirteen different kinds of Arches.